

News Release

Contact: John Marshall
jmarshall@element-consulting.com
952.358.5102

INDUSTRY SALES AND DELIVERY VETERAN JOINS ELEMENT CONSULTING GROUP

Amy Drury to Head Project Management and Business Analysis Practice

MINNEAPOLIS, MN –May 1, 2007 Element Consulting Group, a leading provider of business and technology consulting services, welcomes Amy Drury as a Director of Element's sales and marketing team. Ms. Drury has an impressive career in the Business and Technology consulting industry that spans more than seventeen years working with executive teams, IT management and business stake-holders across a wide range of industries. In her role, Ms. Drury will be responsible for revenue generation and client and partner relations within Element's Project Management and Business Analysis practice.

Ms. Drury is based in Element's Minneapolis offices and will manage revenue for all of the firm's Project Management and Business Analysis work. Her role represents a strategic investment in Element's entry into PM/BA marketplace. Element's vision to establish the highest quality consulting firm focused on providing PM and BA resources across a number of industries and roles in the Twin Cities marketplace.

Prior to joining Element, Amy was with United Health Group, Genesis 10 and Ernst and Young. She has experience in a variety of industries including Insurance, Mortgage, Finance, Telecommunications, Manufacturing and Retail. Her background includes both Delivery and Business Development. Amy has focused on helping companies develop and execute business management and information systems strategies.

About Element Consulting Group: Element Consulting Group is a leading provider of software and services for PeopleSoft, Stellant, Workbrain and Project Management/Business Analysis. Element is a professional services firm committed to helping clients capture a return on investment from their strategy, business processes, and information technology investments. The firm works with world class organizations throughout North America to drive tangible results. Our clients range from global Fortune 100 companies to smaller, regional organizations across a number of industries. Element consultants are individuals who are at the top of our industry, desire to improve quality, and can effectively drive their teams in a collaborative manner. Element consultant's assets include functional, packaged solutions and industry knowledge. We have the capacity to seek and share knowledge and provide our clients with standards, best practices and proven methodologies to ensure success. To date, Element Consulting Group has successfully completed more than 100 projects. Please visit www.element-consulting.com for additional information.